

Rollout divergence vs sleeper suppression (avg over generation seeds, first token)

Each point is first averaged across generation seeds within one training seed, for a fixed intervention family and alpha. Colored lines connect alphas for a single training seed; solid squares are OV/FRA and dashed circles are single-feature. Darker markers indicate larger alpha. Lower x and higher y are better.